

SHERRI ENNIS is an educator in Wilmington, NC whose experience in special education compliments this team. She was motivated to help start this group and offer parents support with behavior management. Sherri has 17 years of experience teaching students in grades K-12 with behavioral, emotional, and academic challenges. She will be joining the Hill School of Wilmington, a school dedicated to meeting the needs of students with learning differences, in the Fall of 2015.